

RAILROADS MAKE
AMENDED OFFER

Further Concessions in Effort to Adjust Differences Between Shipper and Carrier.

SUBMITTED TO GOVERNOR

Thomas C. Fuller Presented to Supreme Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., September 16.—An amended proposition from the interstate carriers in freight rates in effort to adjust the differences between the North Carolina shippers and the carriers as to interstate rates, is in the hands of Chairman E. L. Travis, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, and will be submitted to Governor Craig at once. Chairman Travis has just returned from Washington, where he has been in conference with the railroad officials several days. The most notable amendments to the former proposition, which was rejected in August, give additional concessions to shippers on the lines of the State, and to all points bordering on the Virginia line, and further concessions in rates to Ashburn and the western division of the State. There are also added to the proposition special class rates for outboard freights to the West. There are no reductions to water resorts. This amended proposition was submitted to the Governor this afternoon, and it is expected that he will submit it to President Tate and his advisory board of the Justices of the Supreme Court with the least possible delay. Governor Craig and Chairman Travis were in conference this afternoon for two hours. Mr. Travis going through the amended proposition of the railroad companies for freight rates settlement very completely. Governor Craig said after the conference that he will give careful consideration to the amended proposition, but has nothing to say at this time as to whether there is any probability of acceptance, in which event he would simply recommend to the Legislature that the proposition be accepted. He would not discuss the situation, but made it clear that he considered the amended proposition worthy of most careful consideration. The fact is that there is considerable impression that this resumption of negotiations will lead to agreement for settlement by the Legislature convenes September 24.

The North Carolina Supreme Court this morning received with beautiful ceremony a splendid oil portrait of Judge Thomas C. Fuller, a distinguished citizen, lawyer and jurist, and ordered it assigned to a place of honor on the walls of the courtroom. A distinguished company of relatives and friends filled the courtroom and heard with pleasure an address on the life and character of Judge Fuller by C. W. Broadfoot, of Fayetteville. Acceptance was by Chief Justice Clark, of the court, who declared it especially fitting that portraits of distinguished lawyers, as well as judges, be given place on the walls of the courtroom, since these lawyers so intimately impress the court and the opinions recorded. Judge Fuller was born in Fayetteville in 1832, served in the Confederate army with distinction, and was the youngest member of the Confederate Congress. Later he was elected to the Federal Congress, but was not seated. He located in Raleigh in 1872, and was appointed in 1891 as a member of the United States Land Claims Court, and was a member at the time of his death, in 1901. Children of the jurist here for the ceremony were W. W. Fuller, New York; Frank Fuller, New York; and Harry Durham; Mrs. S. F. Hall, Durham; Mrs. W. E. Borden, Goldsboro.

SELECTIONS HAVE SMALL OPPOSITION

Mitchell and McCall Named by Their Parties in New York City.

ORGANIZATION COMES BACK

Nonpartisan Ballot Has First Trial in Pennsylvania, and Bull Moose Loses.

New York, September 16.—John Purroy Mitchell, at the head of the Fusion ticket, and Edward E. McCall, with the Tammany ticket, carried the primaries to-day with practically no opposition to either ticket in any part of the city. In the Independence League primaries there were lively contests for places on the judicial ticket and for borough president. Late to-night friends of Judge Warren Foster, Democratic candidate for judge of the Court of General Sessions, who sought the league nomination, and Robert L. Luce, Democratic nominee for the judge of the court, claimed they had carried the league primaries against Charles C. Nott and William L. Ransom, the Fusion nominees named by the league designating committee.

Vote Is Light.
The vote throughout the entire city was light. In the Second Assembly District some Republicans substituted the name of Mayor Kilroe for John Purroy Mitchell. The Republicans also cut Hopper and Ransom.

The most bitter primary battle of the day was in the Fifteenth Assembly District for the Tammany district leadership. James J. Hagan, the other leader, was re-elected. He polled 1,315 votes to 346 for George F. Form. Form attributed his defeat to the old Tammany method of guerrilla voting.

Organization Comes Back.
Philadelphia, September 16.—The nonpartisan ballot had its first trial in Pennsylvania to-day, and at a late hour to-night it is certain that the Republican organization of the State has recovered the prestige of which it was deprived when Roosevelt carried the State in the last presidential election. From incomplete returns at midnight it is certain from the results of to-day's primaries that the Independents will be snowed under at the November elections.

In Philadelphia the real test came upon the nomination of candidates for judges of the new Municipal Court. The nonpartisan ballot had its first trial in Pennsylvania to-day, and at a late hour to-night it is certain that the Republican organization of the State has recovered the prestige of which it was deprived when Roosevelt carried the State in the last presidential election. From incomplete returns at midnight it is certain from the results of to-day's primaries that the Independents will be snowed under at the November elections.

Independents Have No Chance.
The vote polled for the organization, city and county candidates, is so heavy that it precludes any possibility of the Independents having even a chance at the November elections. In Philadelphia the reform administration seems sure to be re-elected. Mayor Blankenburg, the reform Mayor of Philadelphia, no matter how good his record, cannot hope to be supported by the members of the next Council, which is the organization, and the balance of the administration. The balance of the administration is the balance of the Independent vote. One has first part, a fight between the Mayor and Councils, in which the Councils win.

Woman's Suffrage Loses.
Baltimore, September 16.—Woman's suffrage received an awful lot to-day at the hands of the voters, who gathered in State convention here to-day. It was the general impression that the party would insert an equal suffrage plank in its platform, and former State Senator J. Gorman was the champion selected to carry through the deal. Women flocked to the auditorium, where the convention was held, and pinned buttons on the coats of delegates and distributed literature. They then took seats in the private boxes and waited for the committee on resolutions to report. After the platform had been read, it was discovered that not a word had been said about woman suffrage. The fight had been carried on in the committee room, and Gorman lost by a vote of 21 to 6. Gorman also favored the initiative and referendum plank and this met a similar defeat. Blair Lee, who has been selected by President Wilson to lead the Progressive Democrats in Maryland, but who made a sorry showing at the primaries last week, was nominated for United States Senator for the reason that the organization Democrats had no candidate for that office. General M. J. Anderson, of Havre de Grace, and treasurer of Maryland, was re-elected chairman of the State Central Committee, despite the fact that Blair Lee and his supporters made against him.

Power Schooner Wasp, Carrying Supplies to Alaska, Out Six Weeks.
Nome, Alaska, September 16.—Anxiety is felt here for the safety of the power schooner Wasp, which left here six weeks ago for the Kuskowim River district, and has not been reported. The vessel was chartered to carry supplies to the mission in the district, and carried Dr. Reed, the newly-appointed United States commissioner for the district, and Superintendent Evans, of the Bureau of Education. The Wasp was scheduled to make the trip in nineteen days.

BODIES UNDER DEBRIS

Surveyors Supposed to Have Been Buried Under Great Landslide.
Ketchikan, Alaska, September 16.—The launch Rough Rider, which was sent out Saturday to give assistance to the Canadian boundary surveyors, whose camp was overwhelmed by a landslide, returned yesterday, having been unable to find the bodies of O. D. Roberts and Harry Bode, who are believed to have been killed, or any trace of them. The slide came from 1,000 feet up the mountain, and in the widest part measured 500 feet and from twenty to thirty feet deep. It is believed the bodies of the victims are under the mass of rock, trees and gravel.

Ambassador to Italy Finds Same Difficulty Experienced by Others.

London, September 16.—Dr. Thomas Nelson Page, the newly-appointed American ambassador to Italy, is experiencing the same trouble in finding a suitable home for the embassy as W. H. Page, the American ambassador here, and Justice Gerard, the American ambassador to Berlin.

Not wishing to be homeless in Rome, the new ambassador already has begun wrestling with this, the most difficult of diplomatic problems for American diplomats.

"I hope to be in Rome on October 1," said Dr. Page yesterday, "and shall devote my time from now until then in trying to arrange for a place to live when get there. First, I shall go to Paris with a view of seeing what can be done for the arranging of furnishings to be shipped should I need them."

"Some of my friends advise me to furnish, while others advise me emphatically not to do so. I have not decided yet, but hope to solve the problem somehow."

Mr. Page hopes to find time enough to finish up some literary work he now has on hand, but for the present he will devote his entire attention to his new work.

"I always had a great liking for the Italian people," he said, "and my whole heart will be in the efforts of bringing about even closer friendship between the two nations."

Justice Gerard has arrived in London en route for his new post in Berlin, and is stopping at the Ritz.

OPENING OF TAZEWELL FAIR.

Parade and Exhibition of School Children Is Strong Feature.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Tazewell, Va., September 16.—Notwithstanding threatening weather and light downpour of rain all day, the Tazewell Fair Association began its tenth annual exhibit here this morning under circumstances that indicated the fair this year will be the best ever held. A strong and drawing feature of the fair to-day was the school children's parade and exhibition. The children formed in parade on the grounds and marched on the race course carrying flags and banners and singing patriotic songs.

An industrial exhibition in a specially erected building, showing the many articles made by the school children of the county, was an attractive sight. The agricultural, domestic and other departments of the fair, including the mineral and mine exhibits, all be in good shape to-morrow, and will then be judged.

Race results were as follows: Katherine D., won the 2:30 trot; time, 2:31. Two-year-old trotting race—Dick Watts, won; time, 2:51. Dick Watts afterwards trotted a mile for a mark and made it in the remarkable time of 2:27 1-2, which established a record for two-year-olds in Virginia. The horse is owned by Fred R. Steele, Tazewell. Half-mile dash—"Maid of the Midst," James Hyter.

$20 in Police Court, Part II, yesterday on the charge of cruelty to animals. Policeman Breeden caught the negro in the act of beating a mule with a pick. He was cruelly whipping a team of mules.

Delegates Appointed for Reunion.
Joseph Johnston Camp, United Confederate Veterans, of South Richmond, sent three delegates to the annual reunion which begins to-day in Roanoke. They are R. G. Wood, J. A. Chisholm and H. H. Morgan.

Confederate Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, has named the following delegates for the reunion: Mrs. Mary Lewis Tucker, Mrs. Sallie C. Tompkins and Mrs. Paul Lipscomb. Mrs. J. T. Fontana, of the Powhatan Chapter, has been appointed chaperon of the reunion by Commander S. D. Rogers, of the Virginia Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans.

SULZER COMPLETES
PLAY FOR REUNION

Counsel Give Out No Intimation
Whatever of Line of Procedure.

VOTING ORDER IMPORTANT

Opinion of Judges of Supreme Court May Have Effect on Legislation.

Albany, N. Y., September 16.—Governor Sulzer and his counsel are busy preparing for the opening of the impeachment trial on Thursday. The Governor and his counsel have given no intimation concerning their plans for the defense, but it is understood they were practically completed at a conference yesterday between D. Cady Herick, and former State Senator Harvey D. Hinman.

When the court of impeachment meets various questions of procedure will have to be determined.

Order of Voting.
Much importance attaches to the order of voting by the court of impeachment as to whether or not the charges against the accused have been sustained. Should the Judges of the Court of Appeals vote first, their verdict, it is asserted, would have great weight with the members of the Senate.

Counsel for the Assembly board of managers, which has the impeachment trial in charge will meet in Albany for a conference to-morrow night.

Clerk in Quagmire.
How to accommodate the newspaper men and special writers from all parts of the country, who are planning to "cover" the Sulzer impeachment trial is a problem which is seriously vexing Senate Clerk Patrick E. McCabe, clerk in charge of the rearranged Senate chamber.

In transforming the chamber into a temporary courtroom, reservations were made for forty-one news writers on the main floor and for possibly as many more in the galleries. Applications already have been received for many more seats, but practically no available space remains. Mr. McCabe to-day said that public admission to the galleries would be on the "first come, first served" plan.

Sulzer Owes Contractor.

New York, September 16.—Hugh J. Rellly, a contractor and railroad builder for the Cuban government, one of the witnesses before the board of managers in charge of the impeachment of Governor Sulzer, said that he owed Governor Sulzer $10,000 in cash shortly after his nomination.

Governor Sulzer, he said, still owed him this money in addition to other loans, which brought his total indebtedness to Mr. Rellly up to $26,500.

FREDERICKSBURG WANTS
NEXT U. C. V. REUNION

Invitation Taken by Delegate From Maury Camp, Public Schools
Open for Term.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Fredericksburg, Va., September 16.—R. C. Hart, a delegate from Maury Camp, Confederate Veterans, of this city, to the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of the State, which convenes in Roanoke on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, carried with him an invitation to the grand camp to hold its next session in the city of Fredericksburg next September. The invitation was signed by Mayor J. P. Rowe, Judge J. P. Goodrich, Commander A. B. Bowering, Maury Camp; W. E. Brant, president of the City Council; Captain M. B. Rowe, president of the Planters' National Bank; Colonel E. D. Cole, S. Ruggles, chairman invitation committee.

Henry Winkler, an employee of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, who was bitten by a dog near here, and has gone to Washington to take the Pasteur treatment. The dog was killed and the head sent to Washington for examination. It is not known if the dog was mad, but Mr. Winkler will take the treatment as a precaution.

Warrant has been issued against Edgar Smith, of Spotsylvania County, charged with full hearing and driving on a narrow-tire wagon over the permanently improved roads of Spotsylvania County.

The apple orchard at Fall Hill, near the city, is full bearing and the fruit will be gathered next week. Many of the trees are loaded down with apples, while others have but few, so that the average is not a full crop. The trees of the apples are smaller than last year. It is believed that the crop this year will produce as much revenue as before, owing to the higher prices. This orchard is very near the city, and is cared for under modern regulations. The orchard is sprayed four or five times a year, and is otherwise looked after and protected. The fact that it produces a great deal of fruit while other orchards in this section fail is an evidence of the advantage of the spraying and other care. This orchard is owned by Fred Robinson, but is leased by W. D. Peyton, of Stafford County.

The government is having the channel of Aquia Creek, in Stafford County, near this city, dredged from where it flows into the Potomac in Coal Landing, a point about six miles up the creek, where vessels pass to and fro.

The public schools of Fredericksburg opened yesterday with the largest attendance in the history of the city.

QUEEN MARY IS CENSOR

Horried at Exhibition of Lady Diana
Manners Shown in Movies.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]
London, September 16.—The latest role which Queen Mary, now known as "the royal busybody," has assumed is that of "movie censor."

An exhibition of motion-pictures is given each evening in the Marlborough Castle, and Queen Mary has taken it upon herself to privately censor the pictures each morning before allowing them to be presented in the evening. All of those which she thinks likely to corrupt the morals of either guests or members of the royal family, are promptly rejected.

Her latest piece of "censorship" nearly caused a break between the royal family and that of the Duke of Rutland. One of the films, which had been made for private exhibition only, showed Lady Diana Manners, daughter of the Duke of Rutland, doing a bacchanalian dance. The Queen was horrified because one scene showed the dancer changing her skirt. That scene was ordered cut out, but the film manufacturers protested that they were obliged to exhibit all of the film or none. The Queen ordered the entire film left out of the performance.
